Mr. Tscherin Soobzokov
117 North Third Street
Paterson, N.J.

Dear Mr. Soobzokov,

I was glad to hear your voice last week on the telephone. I was suddenly called away from town the very day you called and did not return until yesterday. That is the reason for my delay in writing you.

I enclose a postal money order for seventy five ($75.00) as partial payment for your travel and living expenses when you came here. We will be expecting you on Monday morning, 20 February. If the weather forecast is good, you could take the 7:00 AM plane (American Airlines) which gets here at 8:25 AM. But if there is any chance for bad weather, you had better come down on Sunday evening, so as to be sure to be here on Monday. I have reserved you a room at the Statler Hotel beginning Monday, 20 February. If you arrive on Sunday, you will probably be able to get a room at the Statler anyway since Sunday is not a crowded time.

As I told you on the telephone, it will be best if you can remain through Friday.

I will get in touch with you at the Statler on Monday morning at 9:00 A.M. In case you shouldn't hear from me by 10:00 A.M. you may call Executive 9-8576, the number I gave you last time. If you do call me, say Mr. Tom is calling, since the secretary is baffled by your hard-to-pronounce name.

Looking forward to seeing you, I am

Yours sincerely,
